

THE HOT LIST.

IT MAY BE COLD OUTSIDE,
BUT THESE PIECES ARE HOT!

LULULEMON

It comes as no surprise that Lululemon is one of the most popular brands in active wear. The creative line hailing from Vancouver, BC prides itself in details such as hidden pockets, moisture wicking fabrics, and imaginative prints. The Shop has new styles and exciting color combinations coming in for spring, but they won't be around for long!

HARDTAIL

Get back to basics and get in to pieces from Hardtail. For women, their best selling roll down pant is sure to become your favorite item – perfect for running on the treadmill or even running to a lunch date. For the men, great basics tees provide the perfect extra layer to any outfit. With great basics in a wide array of styles and colors, you can't go wrong!

Y-3 BY YOHJI YAMAMOTO

Great bags from acclaimed designer Yohji Yamamoto are the latest additions to The Shop. The collaborative line with Adidas launched back in 2002 and is the perfect mix of sport, design, and true craftsmanship. The spring collection embodies the environment, both indoors and out, while paying a nod to technical fabrics and details. The utilitarian nature of the bags makes them the perfect accessory for your active lifestyle – both in and out of the gym.

IT'S NOT FITNESS. IT'S LIFE.
